

Lecture_Resiliency in Supply Chain Management

Fall Semester 2023/2024

| | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| Name of the course | Resiliency in Supply Chain Management |
| Name of the lecturer | Prof. Dr. Özlem Akçay Kasapoğlu |
| Description of the course | Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Raising awareness for the Global Supply Chain Management-Disruptions in the supply chains Pandemic, Chip Crises, Container Crises, Energy Crises, Wars, Earth Quakes-Changing Challenges in Supply Chain Management-Strategies in Scm (Push/Pull Strategies)-Planning in Scm-Forecasting-Bullwhip Effect-Inventory management and Lean Manufacturing-Resiliency in Supply Chain-Traceability and Transparency in Scm-Sustainability in SCM |
| - | September |
| Kind of exam | Witten or verbal test. “This certificates proofs that you developed awareness, competency and practical skills needed to become more effective at Supply Chain Management. You understand various multi-dimensional models which enables you for more effective interactions at work in the face of significant challenges in the global supply chain management context.” |
| Prerequisites required | NONE |
| Recommended reading | Operations Management, Heize&Render ,Pearson; Supply Chain Management, Chopra, Pearson Goal: |
| Working language | English |